Dear Mr. Pickus:

Bill Blair has very kindly passed on to me your intriguing 1978 calendar. He suggested that it would be a goldmine for quotations in speeches, and I agree. But more than that, it's a good reminder of what it is I'm doing here. I think I will hang it on the north wall; the south wall is a window and what it views is the Lincoln Memorial. Between the two, I ought to be covered.

Thanks again.

With best regards,

Sincerely,
